

CATHERINE MACKINNON

"I've had to develop a healthy outlook on life. I've lived through sarcoma and had to have a reconstruction of my stomach area. At times it's been a huge challenge for me to get used to this "new" body... But then i think of all it can do and i realize this is my new body... And i'm going to be proud of my own skin."